

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE

The large majority of the books in this Catalogue are suitable for the teacher alone, but the needs of the pupils of all grades have received due attention in every Section of the Catalogue. In particular, care has been taken to provide very full lists of books for Supplementary Reading in the Sections on Library Editions, Cheap Editions of Authors, Fiction—General and Historical, Poetry, Essays, History, Biography, Travels, and Nature Study.

The prices here given are not guaranteed. On account of war conditions, the fluctuation in prices is wide and constant. Moreover, some of the prices quoted are net, some are subject to discount, and a few are only approximate.

SECTION I

ENGLISH

DICTIONARIES, CYCLOPÆDIAS, ETC.

Concise Imperial Dictionary: Now called Concise English Dictionary. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto Cloth $1.50; half morocco $3.50

This Dictionary should be adopted as the standard of pronunciation and spelling, and a copy should be on every teacher's school desk.

Cassell's English Dictionary. Ed. by John Williams, M.A. Cassell & Co., Toronto $1.50

This is one of the best of the concise English dictionaries.

Chambers's Twentieth Century Dictionary. (1917) Pronouncing, explanatory, etymological. 1,224 pp. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh. Cloth 4s. 6d.; half morocco 8s. 6d. Musson Book Co., Toronto $1.50

An excellent work at a very low price.

The Concise Oxford Dictionary. Adapted from The Oxford Dictionary. H. W. Fowler and F. G. Fowler. Oxford University Press, Toronto (1911) $2.00

This Concise Dictionary uses the materials and follows the methods of the great Oxford English Dictionary in 10 volumes. It is a fit companion of The Concise English Dictionary and Chambers's Twentieth Century Dictionary.

The Graphic English Dictionary. The W. J. Gage Co., Ltd., Toronto $1.25

Etymological, Explanatory, and Pronouncing; with copious Appendices; 16 full-page coloured plates; and over 900 engravings.

The Student's English Dictionary. John Ogilvie, LL.D. Ed. by Charles Annandale, LL.D. Blackie & Son, London, England 6s. Harold W. Copp, Toronto $2.40

This is a general dictionary of the English language, occupying a position intermediate between a mere school dictionary and a bulky lexicon. It is practically an entirely new work (1918).

Chambers's Biographical Dictionary. The Great of all Times and Nations. Ed. by Patrick and Groome. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 10s. 6d.

An indispensable reference book.

Dictionary of National Biography. Ed. by Sydney Lee. Macmillan's, Toronto 22 vols., each $4.25

The most valuable dictionary of English Biography, but too extensive for most High Schools.

Index and Epitome: Last Volume of the Dictionary of National Biography. Macmillan's, Toronto $7.50

The Dictionary is beyond the reach of most High Schools, but the Index and Epitome is very valuable in itself.

Dictionary of Noted Names of Fiction. Wm. A. Wheeler. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $2.00

This is a new and enlarged edition of a very old work. An appendix to the original work brings the information up to date.

The Century Cyclopædia of Names. The Century Company, New York $9.00

A pronouncing and etymological dictionary of names in geography, biography, mythology, history, art, fiction, etc. No library is complete without this work.

Chambers's Concise Gazetteer of the World. (New and revised edition) Pronouncing, Topographical, Statistical, Historical. Ed. by D. Patrick, LL.D. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 10s. 6d.

Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased. S. A. Allibone; with Supplement, J. F. Kirk. The entire work contains the Names and History of over 83,000 authors. Complete in set of 5 volumes. J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia Cloth $22.50; half morocco $45.00

Geographical Etymology. A Dictionary of Place Names, giving their derivation. C. Blackie. John Murray, London, England $2.00

Haydn's Dictionary of Dates. Relating to all Ages and Nations, for Universal Reference. Ed. by Benjamin Vincent. The new (22nd) English edition. With an American supplement, containing about 200 additional pages, including American topics and a copious Biographical Index by G. P. Putnam; the whole brought down to 1898. In one very large volume of more than 1,200 pages. G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York $7.00

The most comprehensive and reliable book of reference in this department ever published.

Lippincott's Gazetteer of the World. (Corrected edition of 1900) Sheep $10.00. Patent index 75 cents additional. J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia

Who's Who? An Annual Biographical Dictionary. Macmillan's, Toronto $6.00

Familiar Allusions. A handbook of miscellaneous information, including the names of celebrated statues, paintings, palaces, country seats, ruins, churches, ships, streets, clubs, natural curiosities, and the like. Completed and edited by Charles G. Wheeler. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York Cloth $2.50; half calf $3.50

Reader's Hand-book of Allusions, Plots, Stories, and References. (New edition) J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia $3.50

Chambers's Encyclopædia. (New edition. Re-written and enlarged) W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh Cloth £6 6s.; half morocco £8 8s.

A cheap and excellent encyclopædia for High Schools. Articles concise and suitable for pupils' use.

The Harmsworth Encyclopædia. Thos. Nelson & Sons, Toronto 10 vols. Set $15.00

Nelson's Loose-Leaf Encyclopædia. Thos. Nelson & Sons, Toronto 12 vols. Set $88.00

In March and October of each year revised pages are issued to subscribers; thus keeping the work abreast of the times. Per year, $5.00.

Dictionary of English Synonyms and Synonymous or Parallel Expressions. Designed as a practical guide to aptness and variety of expression. By Richard Soule. (New edition, revised and enlarged) Little, Brown & Co., Boston $2.00

Synonyms and Antonyms. A dictionary of kindred words and their opposites in the English language. By C. J. Smith. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.75

Synonyms Discriminated. A Dictionary of Synonymous Words in the English Language. Illustrated with Quotations from Standard Writers. By C. J. Smith. Holt & Co., New York $1.80

Cassell's Book of Quotations. By W. G. Benham. Cassell & Co., Toronto $3.50

In its field, this book is very complete. It contains 1,256 pages of quotations, proverbs, and household words. The index is exhaustive, as every quotation is indexed under various headings.

Cyclopædia of Practical Quotations. By J. K. Hoyt. Funk & Wagnalls Co., New York $6.00

With an appendix containing proverbs from the modern foreign languages, Latin law terms, etc.

Familiar Short Sayings of Great Men. By Samuel A. Bent. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $2.00

A revised and enlarged edition of a well-known work.

Poetical Quotations. By S. A. Allibone. J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia $3.00

Covering the field of British and American poetry from Chaucer to Tennyson. With indexes. Both authors and subjects are alphabetically arranged.

Prose Quotations. By S. A. Allibone. J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia Cloth $3.00; half calf $5.00

Shakespeare Concordance. By John Bartlett. Macmillan's, Toronto $7.50

A new and complete Concordance or Verbal Index to Words, Phrases, and Passages in the Dramatic Works of Shakespeare, with a Supplementary Concordance to the Poems.

Thesaurus of English Words and Phrases. Classified and arranged by J. L. Roget. J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia Cloth $1.50; half morocco $2.50

New edition, enlarged and improved, partly from the author's notes and with a full index.

The purpose of an ordinary dictionary is simply to explain the meaning of words. The object aimed at here is exactly the converse of this—namely, the idea being given, to find the word or words by which that idea may most aptly be expressed.

The Canadian Almanac and Miscellaneous Directory. Published annually by Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $1.50

Canada Year Book. Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa. Gratis

5,000 Facts About Canada. Compiled by Frank Yeigh. (1918 edition) Canada Facts Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto .25

Every-day Words and Their Uses. By Robert Palfrey Utter. Harper & Brothers, New York $1.25

Every-day Words explains the meaning and use of a thousand or more expressions which are frequently misused or misunderstood. It is intended to give exactly the information most often wanted, and to present it in a compact, accessible form, without pedantry, formality, or technicality.

Forms of Discourse, The. By W. B. Cairns. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.15

Foundations of Rhetoric. By A. S. Hill. American Book Company, New York $1.00

A High School text book, Principles of Rhetoric, by the same author and publisher, is a more advanced work.

Handbook of Rhetorical Analysis. Studies in Style and Invention, designed to accompany the author's Practical Elements of Rhetoric. By J. F. Genung. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.12

The King's English. By H. W. Fowler and F. G. Fowler, compilers of the Concise Oxford Dictionary. Oxford University Press, Toronto $1.50

A handbook for use in composition, avoiding the obvious and unnecessary rules, but giving examples of common blunders in style and expression.

On the Art of Writing. By Sir A. T. Quiller-Couch. G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York $1.50

Oral Composition. By C. C. Ward. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

The author states in his Preface the purpose of his book. "To aid in preparing pupils to stand up, when occasion demands, and to say naturally, fearlessly, and agreeably, as well as simply and clearly, whatever they have to say".

Oral English. By J. M. Brewer. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.00

This work takes up all the common situations in which talking plays a part. A very suggestive and adequate treatment of the subject.

Outlines of Composition and Rhetoric. By J. F. Genung and C. L. Hanson. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.00

Oral, as well as written composition, receives a generous amount of treatment in this volume, intended for the last two years of High School work in composition.

The Principles of Oral English. By E. Palmer. Macmillan's, Toronto .60

The book deals clearly with the principles underlying effective speaking.

Rhetoric and English Composition. By Geo. R. Carpenter. (First published, 1906) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

This is one of the most popular books on the subject. It should prove of great service to the teachers of Composition in the Lower School classes.

Senior Course of English Composition. By J. C. Nesfield, M.A. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

This book deals in Part I with the qualities of Composition, and in Part II with Essays and Essay-writing. The qualities of Composition are dealt with under the heads: Figures of Speech, Perspicuity, Simplicity, Brevity, Impressiveness, Euphony, Picturesqueness. The book concludes with thirty pages of topics for essays.

Short Story, The: Its Principles and Structure. By E. M. Albright. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

A Selection from the Best English Essays. A. C. McClurg & Co., Chicago $1.20

The stories and essays are well chosen, well classified, and well edited, with brief suggestive introductions to each. Useful as models in advanced classes.

A Selection from the World's Greatest Short Stories. A. C. McClurg & Co., Chicago $1.20

Illustrative of the history of short story writing, with critical and historical comments by the editor. Fourteen stories.

Specimens of Narration, Description, Exposition, and Argumentation. Holt & Co., New York 4 vols., each .60

Helpful in advanced classes.

Standard of Usage in English, The. By T. R. Lounsbury. Harper & Brothers, New York $1.50

This volume, by an author recognized as one of the first critics of the English language, will be a standard help for all interested in correct speech. One of the most useful points is the discussion of a number of forms which are questioned to-day, such as "gotten" and "got", "proven" and "proved", etc.

Studies in Structure and Style. By Brewster & Carpenter. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Intended to supplement the study of the principles of Rhetoric by a systematic analysis of modern English prose. The notes on structure are valuable. Froude, Stevenson, J. Morley, M. Arnold, Bryce, Ruskin, and Newman are the authors selected.

An anthology of the best lyrical and epigrammatic poems in the English language, comprising both British and American poets, and arranged according to chronology.

The Oxford Book of Victorian Verse. Chosen by Sir A. T. Quiller-Couch. Oxford University Press, Toronto $2.00

An anthology of modern lyrical verse, beginning with Lander and including poems of contemporary writers; containing many beautiful lyrics which space would not permit in The Oxford Book of English Verse and, therefore, granting an opportunity for fuller acquaintance with the characteristic qualities of each individual poet.

The Oxford Song Book. Collected and arranged by Percy C. Buck, M.A., D.Mus., Oxon. Oxford University Press, Toronto $1.75

A collection of British and American National and Folk Songs, with the music arranged on two staves; so that a chorus may be easily formed in any company which can produce a pianist of mediocre ability.

3 C.B.

Representative Poetry. Selected and Annotated for Class Use in the University of Toronto. (Second and enlarged edition) University of Toronto Press, Toronto $1.80

Does not claim to be a complete anthology of the best poems in the English language, but is a collection (covering a period from the 14th Century to the end of the 19th Century), the extracts of which have been chosen as in some manner representative of the characteristics of an author or of the tendencies of an Age. Contains brief notes offering textual criticism or historical background.

A Treasury of Irish Poetry, in the English Tongue. Ed. by Stopford Brooke and T. W. Rolleston. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.75

Treasury of War Poetry. Ed. by George Herbert Clarke. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $1.25

Lampman, Archibald*Poems.* Ed., with a Memoir by Duncan Campbell Scott. Wm. Briggs, Toronto $2.00Roberts, C. G. D.Poems.* (New and complete edition) The Page Co., Boston $2.00

This volume contains all of Roberts' poems which he cares to preserve.

NOTE.—As the two anthologies listed above contain characteristic selections from the works of all the Canadian writers of verse, attention is here drawn to only a few of the separate volumes which contain the poems of living authors. In most cases the time has not arrived for appraising the literary status of the twenty or more Canadian writers of verse who have earned distinction in their own country. Those principals of schools who desire to have a Canadian section in the school library should write to Toronto publishers for information about the separate volumes of Charles Mair, Frederick George Scott, Duncan Campbell Scott, William Henry Drummond, Robert W. Service, Isabella Valancy Crawford, Ethelwyn Wetherald, E. Pauline Johnson, Marjorie L. C. Pickthall, and others.

This History has been compiled to meet the growing demand on the part of teachers for a book of practicable size, covering the whole of English history, and containing, in addition to a succinct narrative of the course of events, a sufficient number of contemporary documents to make it a laboratory manual for the pupil.

History of England from the Accession of James II. By Macaulay. Macaulay's Historical Essays are also very valuable. (Various editions)

(Everyman's) J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto .50

Longmans, Green & Co., New York 2 vols., each $2.00

(Students' Edition) Longmans, Green & Co., New York $3.50

History of the Four Georges and William IV. By Justin McCarthy. Harper & Brothers, New York 4 vols., each $1.35

A History of Great Britain. From the Coming of the Angles to the Year 1870. By E. M. Wilmot-Buxton, F.R.Hist.S. (With 20 maps) Methuen & Co., London, England 4s.

This book attempts to break through the conventional lines on which History Class-books are laid down. With very few exceptions these books make the reign the chapter limit, and take each event in chronological order. In this book the old system has been entirely discarded, and each chapter will be found to deal with one great movement which is traced in cause, events, and result. Another feature is the close connection which has been maintained throughout with European History. Since it is clearly impossible to grasp a great part of our internal history or any of our external relations without understanding the contemporary position of affairs on the Continent, almost every chapter will be found to commence with a brief explanation of the latter, pointing out the particular crisis with which England was especially concerned.

History of the Great Civil War, 1642-1649. By S. R. Gardiner. Longmans, Green & Co., New York 4 vols., each $2.00

A History of Modern England. By H. Paul. Macmillan's, Toronto 5 vols., each $3.75

A brilliant work.

History of Scotland. By P. Hume Brown. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto 3 vols. $5.50

History of Scotland. By Andrew Lang. Blackwood & Sons, Edinburgh 2 vols., each 15s.

History of the Union Jack and Flags of the Empire. By Barlow Cumberland, M.A. (Illustrated) McClelland, Goodchild & Stewart, Toronto $1.50

Influence of Sea Power Upon History. By A. T. Mahan. Little, Brown & Co., Boston $4.00

Illustrations to English History. Ed. by J. Turrill. Oxford University Press, Toronto (1913) .90

This volume will prove a valuable aid to the teacher of English history. It is made up of extracts, prose and poetical, from contemporary documents, bearing on a very large number of historical incidents and situations.

Henty, G. A.
Fighting the Saracens

Hewlett, Maurice
The Life and Death of Richard Yea-and-Nay Macmillan's, Toronto $1.50

An imaginative reading of the character and life-history of Richard Cœur de Lion, poetical rather than actual in style and method. Richard's passionate, reckless, and domineering personality is painted in hot colours; the lady of his knightly passion is a perfect creature of romance, beside whom Berengaria is quite a secondary figure. Departing from strict accuracy in the record of events, it is a brilliant, perhaps too brilliant, reconstruction of the manners and emotions, the poetry and pageantry, of the age of the tournaments and Crusades.

Lytton, E. Bulwer-

Rienzi, the Last of the Roman Tribunes

Scott, Sir Walter

Count Robert of Paris

Ivanhoe (Pocket Classics) Macmillan's,
Toronto .30

The author's first departure from the Scottish themes, and his most popular book. A many-coloured picture of mediæval England at the period when Norman and Saxon had hardly begun to fuse, when the castles were the strongholds of baronial oppressors, and the woods full of outlaws.

The Talisman (Pocket Classics) Macmillan's, Toronto .30

A tale of the Third Crusade; scene, the Holy Land.

Yonge, Charlotte M.

The Prince and the Page (A Story of the last Crusade) Macmillan's, Toronto .75

Eliot, George

Romola

Hugo, Victor

Notre Dame, or The Bell-ringer of Paris

Lang, Andrew

A Monk of Fife (Story of Joan of Arc)

Scott, Sir Walter

Quentin Durward Macmillan's, Toronto .30

A rich and varied picture of the age when feudalism and chivalry were about to pass away. Most of the events take place in the frontier districts of France and Flanders, when Louis was stirring up the citizens against his own vassal, Charles of Burgundy.

SIXTEENTH CENTURY

Henty, G. A.

By England's Aid, or Freeing the Netherlands

Saint Bartholomew's Eve

Kingsley, Charles

Westward Ho! Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

Reade, Charles

The Cloister and the Hearth

Scott, Sir Walter

The Abbot (Dryburgh Edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Much historical interest attaches to this book on account of its very complete and life-like portrait of Mary Queen of Scots, which, though too favourable and romantic, has, with the accompanying notes, many details not to be found in the ordinary histories.

Kenilworth (Pocket Classics) Macmillan's, Toronto .30

Founded on Mickle's romantic ballad of Cumnor Hall; the tragic story of Amy Robsart, the martyred wife of Queen Elizabeth's favourite, Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester; takes great liberties with history and chronology, in order to bring significant persons and events into the action.

Weyman, S. J.

Gentleman of France

Yonge, Charlotte M.

The Armourer's Prentices Macmillan's, Toronto .75

Adventures of two orphan brothers who make their way from the New Forest to London in search of their fortunes. One, who has scholarly ambitions, becomes attached to Wolsey's household and makes acquaintance with Colet, whilst the other becomes a master-armourer. We hear about the Field of the Cloth of Gold, of the fall of Wolsey, and of More, and of the divorce proceedings. Erasmus also comes in.

SEVENTEENTH CENTURY

Henty, G. A.

The Lion of the North, or the Times of Gustavus Adolphus

Scott, Sir Walter

The Fortunes of Nigel (Dryburgh Edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Life in London and at the Court in the early days of James I; with full portraits of the King, Prince Charles, and the Duke of Buckingham. "No historical portrait that we possess", says R. H. Hutton, "will take precedence, as a mere portrait, of Scott's brilliant study of James I".

Woodstock; or The Cavalier (Dryburgh Edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

A Royalist picture of the domination of the Parliament. The romantic plot has for its theme the love of a brave and generous Roundhead for the daughter of the keeper of Woodstock Park. Desborough, Harrison, and Cromwell himself are introduced.

Shorthouse, J. H.

John Inglesant Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

The earlier portion of this spiritual biography of a rare spirit gives many glimpses of English life in the Civil War epoch.

Thackeray, W. M.

Henry Esmond Macmillan's, Toronto
$1.00

A chronicle of public and domestic events taking place toward the end of the 17th century, ostensibly an autobiography written in George III's reign, and a successful reproduction of the modes of speaking and writing appropriate to the times.

EIGHTEENTH CENTURY

Dickens, Charles

Tale of Two Cities Macmillan's, Toronto
$1.00

Galt, John

The Annals of the Parish, and The Ayrshire Legatee Macmillan's, Toronto .75

The Annals may be taken as typical of the whole series. It depicts the characteristics of an Ayrshire village, from the minister downwards, with raciness, humour, and pathos; adopting the form of a journal kept by the village pastor, a humorous and kindly old man.

Goldsmith, Oliver

The Vicar of Wakefield Macmillan's,
Toronto .75

This exquisite idyll is the finest picture we have of the simple country life of the time.

Porter, Jane

Thaddeus of Warsaw

Scott, Sir Walter

The Heart of Midlothian (Dryburgh Edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Opens with an account of the Porteous Riots in Edinburgh; but the story is concerned, principally, with the misfortunes of a peasant girl, Effie Deans. Among the historical characters introduced are George II's wife, Queen Caroline, the Duke of Argyle, and Captain Porteous.

Rob Roy (Dryburgh Edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

The scenes are laid in Northumberland, Glasgow, and the Highlands about Loch Lomond, just before the battles of Sheriffmuir and Preston. Jacobite intrigues among the English gentry have a good deal to do with the evolution of the story.

Waverley; or 'Tis Sixty Years Since (Dryburgh Edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

First of his great series of novels. Begun by Scott in 1805, then laid aside, and in 1814 taken up and finished in three weeks. Waverley fights with credit at Prestonpans, accompanies the Highland army in their march to Derby, and returns to Scotland after Culloden.

Kipling, Rudyard

Puck of Pook's Hill Macmillan's, Toronto $1.60

A boy and a girl on a Sussex Down suddenly find themselves in the presence of the fairy Puck, who transports them back to the age of the Stone Men and the first discovery of metal. The fear-haunted life of those far-off times is depicted with the vivid, matter-of-fact realism and imaginative insight into elemental human character that is expected of Mr. Kipling; and in the vignettes from later British history ushered in by Puck in the sequel, the art is equally great and convincing. Some of Kipling's finest poems are interspersed.

Rewards and Fairies Macmillan's, Toronto $1.60

The implish Puck of Pook's Hill shows the children of that earlier book the pageant of English history—the strange death of Harold (long after Hastings) Torrigiano at work in King Henry VII's chapel, Queen Elizabeth, and Philip II, etc.

Macdonald, George

St. George and St. Michael David McKay, Philadelphia $1.25

Malory, Sir Thomas

Morte d'Arthur Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

A redaction of the whole cycle of Arthurian legends to which Geoffrey of Monmouth had given currency in his History of the British Kings (1189). A storehouse of knightly tales of adventure, feats of arms, wizardry, and enchantments.

Scott, Sir Walter

The Betrothed (Dryburgh Edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Illustrates the inveterate hostility between the Anglo-Normans planted on the Welsh border and the descendants of the ancient Britons.

UNITED STATES

Johnston, Mary

The Long Roll Houghton, Mifflin Co., Boston $1.40

This is an historical novel of the American Civil War. The chief historical figure is Stonewall Jackson. The author assures us that many of the incidents of the tale were actual happenings.

Cease Firing Houghton, Mifflin Co., Boston $1.40

This is an historical tale—a sequel to The Long Roll. The chief historical figure is General Robert E. Lee. The book contains rather more history than fiction.

BIOGRAPHY

For the sake of convenient reference and to obviate the necessity of separating from one another titles of different books about the same personage, the alphabetical order of the surnames has, regardless of other considerations, dictated the order of the titles in all cases where a surname enters into the title.

General Botha: The Career and the Man. By Harold Spender. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York (1916) $2.00

Life of Charlotte Brontë. By Mrs. Gaskell. Harper & Brothers, New York $1.75

This is, on the whole, the best of the many biographies of Charlotte Brontë.

The Three Brontës. By May Sinclair. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $3.00

Illustrated. This is a very interesting appreciation of the lives and literary careers of Charlotte, Emily, and Anne Brontë.

Life of Robert Burns. By Thomas Carlyle. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York .75

This is Carlyle's famous review of Lockhart's Life of Burns.

Life of Burns. By Lockhart. (Bohn) Geo. Bell & Sons, London, England $1.00

- Albert, Fourth Earl Grey: A Last Word. By Harold Begbie. Hodder & Stoughton, Toronto .75
The author has given us, in this little volume, a glimpse of one of the most charming personalities and high-minded citizens of the British Empire. In this biography of Earl Grey, we see him as a school-boy at Harrow, a student at Cambridge, and in high official office in Canada and South Africa, "aiming always at two objects—to understand other people's minds, and to bring about whatever improvement was possible, and doing this with the saving grace of infallible tact". The subject will always prove interesting to Canadians, as during his tenure of office, 1904-1911, he was popular throughout the Dominion.

In African Forest and Jungle. By P. B. DuChaillu. Scribner's Sons, New York $1.50

In Canada's Wonderful Northland. By Curran & Calkins. G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York $2.50. Wm. Briggs, Toronto $2.50

With 32 illustrations and 5 maps. This is a story of eight months of travel by canoe, motor-boat, and dog-team, through the Hudson Bay region of Canada.

In Darkest Africa. By H. M. Stanley. Scribner's Sons, New York $3.00

In the Forbidden Land. By A. H. Savage Landor. (Popular Edition) Harper & Brothers, New York $3.00

An account of the author's daring journey into Tibet; his capture, imprisonment, torture, and ultimate release.

The Islands of the Ægean. By H. F. Tozer. Oxford University Press, Toronto $2.75

Japan. A Record in Colour. By M. and D. Menpes. Macmillan's, Toronto $3.50

A beautifully and copiously illustrated account of social life and customs in different parts of Japan. In the same series are similar accounts of other parts of the world. As works of art (by recently discovered colour-processes) most of the series are well worth purchasing.

Japan, the New World Power. By R. P. Porter. Oxford University Press, Toronto $1.75

This is a detailed account of the progress and rise of the Japanese Empire.

Labrador, the Country and the People. By Wilfred T. Grenfell and others. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.50

This book, first published in 1909, has become already very famous. No Canadian library can afford to neglect it.

The Labrador Trail. By Dillon Wallace. A. C. McClurg & Co., Chicago $1.45

Sequel to The Lure of the Labrador Wild, in Wallace's interesting style.

Literary Landmarks. By Laurence Hutton. (Illustrated) Harper & Brothers, New York 4 vols. $5.25

Brief accounts of the residences of literary writers. Deals with London, Rome, Florence, and Jerusalem.

The Lure of the Labrador Wild. By Dillon Wallace. Fleming Revell, New York $1.50

A most vivid story of travel and hardship in Labrador.

Modern Travel Series. Some of the volumes are:

Present-day Japan. By A. M. C. Davidson

Uganda to Khartoum. By A. B. Lloyd

The Andes and The Amazon. By C. R. Enock

Siberia. By Samuel Turner

Tramps in Dark Mongolia. By John Hedley T. Fisher Unwin, London, England (Each vol. illustrated) 5s.

The New North. By Agnes Deans Cameron. D. Appleton & Co., New York $3.50

This is a vastly interesting account of a woman's journey through Canada and the Arctic regions—1910.

The North Pole: Its Discovery in 1909. By R. E. Peary. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $5.00

On the Head Waters of the Peace River. A Narrative of a 1,000-Mile Canoe Trip to a Little-known Range of the Canadian Rockies. By P. L. Haworth. Scribner's Sons, New York (1917) $4.00

The Other Side of the Lantern. By Sir Frederick Treves. Cassell & Co., Toronto $1.50

With illustrations from photographs by the author. This is an account of a tour around the world made by one of the most distinguished of British surgeons.

Out-of-Doors in the Holy Land. By Henry Van Dyke. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $1.50

Palestine Depicted and Described. By G. E. Franklin, F.R.G.S. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $3.00

376 illustrations.

The Picturesque St. Lawrence. Written and illustrated by Clifton Johnson, 1910. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.50

While this is a valuable guide book for the traveller, it will give thousands who may never see our great Canadian river some conception of its striking features and innumerable charms.

Pioneers in Canada. The "Romance of the World Series". Ed. by Herbert Strang. Hodder & Stoughton, and Oxford University Press, Toronto $1.00

This gives adventures in the Far North and the Far West and a description of the life of the explorer and the settler. With 8 illustrations in colour and 2 maps.

The Romance of India. Ed. by Herbert Strang. Oxford University Press, Toronto $1.25

ARITHMETIC AND MENSURATION

Advanced Arithmetic. (Canadian Edition)
By D. E. Smith, LL.D. Ginn & Co.,
Boston (1914) .45

Arithmetic. By A. E. Layng, M.A. Blackie
& Son, London, England. Complete with or without answers, 4s. 6d. In two parts, with or without answers, 2s. 6d.
Part I—To Decimals and the Unitary Method.
Part II—Unitary Method to Scales of Notation.

Arithmetic. Exercises and Examination
Papers. With or without answers. By Hall and Knight. (Third edition, revised and enlarged) Macmillan's, Toronto .90

Arithmetic for Schools. By S. L. Loney.
Macmillan's, Toronto $1.50

Business Arithmetic for Secondary Schools.
By E. L. Thurston. Macmillan's, Toronto (1913) $1.00

Elements of Business Arithmetic. By Bigelow and Arnold. Macmillan's, Toronto (1911) .70

Elementary Mensuration. By F. H. Stevens.
Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Provides two courses, an elementary and an advanced.

Mental Arithmetic. Blackie & Son, London, England 8d.

Consisting mainly of problems designed specially to give the power of ready solution.

Modern Business Arithmetic. By Finney &
Brown. Holt & Co., New York $1.25
A year's work in the arithmetic of modern business.

A New School Arithmetic. By C. Pendle-bury. Geo. Bell & Sons, London, England 5s.

Vocational Arithmetic. By H. D. Vincent.
Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York (1914)

ALGEBRA

Academic Algebra. By Wentworth and
Smith. Ginn & Co., Boston (1913) $1.20

Algebra. By Prof. Chrystal. Part I, $4.25
Part II, $4.25 Macmillan's, Toronto
One of the finest text-books on the subject.

Algebraic Exercises and Examination
Papers. With or without answers. By Hall and Knight. Macmillan's, Toronto
.90

Algebra for Colleges and Schools. By Hall and Knight. (Revised and enlarged)
Macmillan's, Toronto $1.10
One of the good Algebras of to-day.

Algebra for Secondary Schools. By C.
Davison. Cambridge University Press,
(1912) J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto
$2.25

Algebra. Theoretical and Applied. Including Trigonometry and an Introduction to the Calculus. A Class-book for Secondary, Higher, Elementary, and Technical Schools. By A. H. Bell.
Blackie & Son, London, England 4s. 6d.

There is much that is excellent in this work. The practical aspect of the subject is throughout emphasized, and the connection between the different branches of mathematics is at every turn enforced and made interestingly clear.

College Algebra. (Revised edition) By G. A.
Wentworth. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.50

Commercial Algebra. By Wentworth, Smith, and Schlauch. Books I and II. Ginn
& Co., Boston Each, $1.12

Book I is intended for use in the first year of a commercial High School. The chapter on "Equations applied to Commerce" is exceptionally valuable.
Book II (recently issued) is devoted largely to the higher technical topics of commercial algebra.
A large number of modern commercial problems will be found in both books.

Elementary Algebra. By Baker and Bourne. Part I (to Quadratic Equations), 3s., or with answers, 3s. 6d. Part II, with or without answers, 2s. 6d. Geo. Bell & Sons, London, England

Numerous suggestive examples. The graphical method is employed in the solution of equations and problems.

Elementary Algebra. By F. H. Somerville. American Book Company, New York $1.00

Exercises in Algebra (including Trigonometry). By L. Percy Nunn. Part I, with answers. Longmans, Green & Co., New York $1.10

First Course in Algebra. By Hawkes, Luby, and Touton. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.00

An Intermediate Algebra. Enlarged edition for Secondary Schools. By Alfred T. De Lury. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $1.00

Contains a good collection of problems suitable for scholarship candidates.

A School Algebra—With Answers. By Lane & Lane. Edward Arnold, London, England 4s. 6d.

The authors are two experienced English teachers. The book will supply numerous examples to supplement those in the prescribed text-book.

A School Algebra. By W. E. Paterson. (2 Parts, with answers) Oxford University Press, Toronto Each .75

Treatise on Algebra. By Charles Smith. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.60

GEOMETRY

Advanced Geometry for High Schools. By A. H. McDougall. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $1.00

Analytical Geometry. By Alfred Baker. The W. J. Gage Co., Ltd., Toronto $1.00

Analytical Geometry (Algebraic). By W. M. Baker. Geo. Bell & Sons, London, England 6s.

Elements of Co-ordinate Geometry. By S. L. Loney. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.60

Elementary Geometry. By Baker and Bourne. Geo. Bell & Sons, London, England 4s. 6d.

Elementary Geometry, Plane and Solid. By T. F. Holgate. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.10

Elementary Geometry, Practical and Theoretical. By Godfrey and Siddons. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $1.50

The Elements of Euclid, for the Use of Schools and Colleges By I. Todhunter. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

New edition, revised and enlarged.

Euclid's Elements. Books I-VI. By Hall and Stevens. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

Contains well-graded exercises with alternative proofs and additional theorems.

Euclid Revised. Ed. by R. C. J. Nixon, M.A. Oxford University Press, Toronto $1.50

One of the best recent texts. Contains valuable addenda.

Exercises in Euclid. Graduated and Systematized. By W. Weeks. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

An excellent collection.

Experimental and Theoretical Course of Geometry. By A. T. Warren. Oxford University Press, Toronto .50

A New Geometry for Schools. By George Lawson. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 2s.

A New Geometry for Schools. By Barnard and Child. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.50

Plane Geometry, Practical and Theoretical. By J. S. Mackay. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 3s. 6d.

A School Geometry. By Hall & Stevens. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Theoretical Geometry for Beginners. By C. H. Allcock. Macmillan's, Toronto 4 Parts. I, .50 II-IV, .90

TRIGONOMETRY

Elementary Trigonometry. By Hall & Knight. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

Elementary Trigonometry. By R. S. Heath. Oxford University Press, Toronto .90

Plane Trigonometry. By Levett & Davison. Macmillan's, Toronto 2 vols. $2.20

Plane Trigonometry. By H. L. Reed. Geo. Bell & Sons, London, England 4s.

Practical Trigonometry. By H. C. Plaque and R. C. Fawdry. Edward Arnold, London, England .75
Brief, accurate, and thorough.

Plane Trigonometry. By S. L. Loney, M.A. Part I, up to and including the Solution of Triangles, $1.90. Part II, Analytical Trigonometry, $1.25. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto Complete in one volume $3.00

Plane Trigonometry and Tables. By D. A. Murray. Longmans, Green & Co., New York $1.00

Contains many practical exercises.

A Treatise on Plane Trigonometry. By E. W. Hobson. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $4.25

Trigonometry. By J. B. Lock. Elementary, $1.10; Higher, $1.00. Macmillan's, Toronto

SCIENCE

BOTANY

Canadian Wild Flowers Worth Knowing.
Adapted from Nature's Garden, by Neltje Blanchan. Musson Book Co.,
Toronto $1.60

Canadian Trees Worth Knowing. By Julia Ellen Rogers. Musson Book Co., Toronto $1.60

With 48 illustrations, 16 in colour.

Elementary Botany. By G. F. Atkinson.
Holt & Co., New York $1.25

Written from the physiological standpoint. A most valuable guide-book.

Elementary Botany. By Percy Groom.
Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $1.25

With 275 illustrations, together with A Manual of the More Common Plants of Quebec and Ontario.
Adapted from Gray's Manual by D. P. Penhallow.

Elements of Botany. By J. Y. Bergen.
Ginn & Co., Boston $1.30

Includes key and flora of Northern and Central United States, but is valuable chiefly for its guide to simple laboratory work.

First Studies in Plant Life. By G. F.
Atkinson. Ginn & Co., Boston .60

The Flora of Canada. By J. M. Macoun and M. O. Matte. Government Printing Bureau, Ottawa. Gratis.

Canada Department of Mines, *Geological Survey

Flora of the Northern States and Canada.
By N. L. Britton, Director of the New York Botanical Garden. (1,080 pp.) Holt
& Co., New York $2.50

Foundations of Botany. By J. Y. Bergen.
Ginn & Co., Boston $1.50

Combines an illustrated modern text-book with a course in laboratory work and a key for the study of systematic Botany. A handbook for the use of teachers is published.

Glimpses at the Plant World. By F. D.
Bergen. Ginn & Co., Boston .40

A Guide to the Wild Flowers. By Alice Lounsberry. McClelland, Goodchild &
Stewart, Toronto $2.25

With 64 coloured plates, 100 black and white plates, 54 diagrams, and an introduction by Dr.
Britton of Columbia University.

How to Know the Wild Flowers. By Mrs.
Wm. Starr Dana. (New edition, with coloured plates) Scribner's Sons, New York $2.00

This is a thoroughly revised edition of a well-known book, which will be found as useful to the young students of Ontario as to those of New York State, where the author lives and made her observations.

High School Botany, Part II. By H. B.
Spotton, M.A., LL.D., F.L.S. The W. J. Gage Co., Ltd., Toronto (Revised) .60

Illustrated Flora of the Northern United States, Canada, and the British Possessions. From Newfoundland to the parallel of the southern boundary of Virginia, and from the Atlantic Ocean westward to the 102nd meridian. By
N. L. Britton, and the Hon. A. Brown.
(With over 4,000 illustrations) Scribner's Sons, New York 3 vols. $13.50

The first complete illustrated Flora published in America.

Introduction to Botany. Practical Exercises in the Study of Plants. By V. M.
Spalding. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston
$1.00

A laboratory guide, suitable for junior classes.

Lessons with Plants. By L. H. Bailey.
Macmillan's, Toronto $1.10

Our Early Wild Flowers. By Harriet L.
Keeler. McClelland, Goodchild &
Stewart, Toronto $1.25

This is a beautifully illustrated study of the herbaceous plants blooming in early spring in the Northern United States and in Canada.

Our Native Ferns and Their Allies. By L. Underwood. Holt & Co., New York $1.00

Our Native Trees and How to Identify Them. By Harriet L. Keeler. (Over 300 illustrations) McClelland, Goodchild & Stewart, Toronto $2.25

The trees described in this volume are those indigenous to the region from the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains and from Canada to Virginia.

Plants. By J. M. Coulter. (Twentieth Century Series) Part I, Plant Relations, $1.30. Part II, Plant Structures, $1.30. In one volume, $1.80. D. Appleton & Co., New York

Plant Physiology. By W. F. Ganong. Holt & Co., New York $1.75

One of the best laboratory manuals for classes in plant physiology. Contains excellent directions for both teacher and pupil.

Practical Botany. By J. Y. Bergen and O. W. Caldwell. (Illustrated) Ginn & Co., Boston $1.30

Practical Botany provides an abundance of material for a year's work in botany. It is designed to meet the demand for a text-book which shall present the subject in a scientific manner and, at the same time, emphasize the relations of plants to everyday life.

Principles of Botany. By Bergen & Davis. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.50

Studies in Plant Life. By Pepoon, Mitchell, and Maxwell. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston .60

A laboratory guide for High Schools. A very excellent work.

The Teaching Botanist. By W. F. Ganong. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

A work of hints and advice to teachers.

A Text-book of Botany. By J. M. Coulter. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.30

In this Botany for High and Normal Schools the author's effort has been to develop Plant Physiology, Ecology, and Morphology side by side in their natural relationship.

A Text-book of Botany. By Allen & Gilbert. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston $1.48

An excellent treatise for use in Secondary Schools. The order of the topics will probably not commend itself to all teachers of the subject; but the authors themselves, in their preface, suggest alternative courses to suit different conditions. Special features of this book are the chapters on economic uses of plants, weeds, and poisonous plants; forestry; plant breeding; plant diseases; and laboratory work. The book will be found useful for reference in both the Upper and the Lower School.

ZOOLOGY

Animal Life. A First Book of Zoology. By Jordan and Kellogg. (Twentieth Century Series) D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.25

The book is beautifully illustrated and very valuable. Contains a most entertaining account of the relations of animals to conditions.

Animals (including Animal Life and Animal Forms, separate works by the same authors). By Jordan, Kellogg, and Heath. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.80

Animal Studies. By Jordan, Kellogg, and Heath. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.30

Animals treats largely of Ecology and Morphology; Animal Studies presents the salient features of these subjects with classification, economic uses, and the history of extinct animals.

Elementary Zoology. By V. L. Kellogg. Holt & Co., New York $1.50

Insect Book. By L. O. Howard. Doubleday, Page & Co., New York $4.00 Wm. Briggs, Toronto $4.00

Insect Life. By J. H. Comstock. D. Appleton & Co., New York $2.00

Introduction to Zoology. By C. E. Davenport. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.10

A very useful reference book. Contains keys for the identification of many groups of animals.

An Introduction to Zoology: Invertebrates. By R. Lulham, B.Sc. Macmillan's, Toronto (1913) $2.25

This book gives directions for practical work in Zoology, and should be of service to the pupils in the Upper School and to students working alone, who desire a guide in the study of natural history.

Life Histories of American Insects. By C. M. Weed. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

A brief outline of the lives of a few of the most common and interesting species.

Manual for the Study of Insects. By J. H. Comstock and A. B. Comstock. (New edition) Comstock Publishing Co., Ithaca, New York $3.75

Manual of Zoology. By Parker and Haswell. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.00

A Text-book in General Zoology. By H. R. Linville and H. A. Kelly. (Illustrated) Ginn & Co., Boston $1.50

This clear and admirably arranged exposition of the science of Zoology is one of the most widely used text-books in its field. It is designed chiefly for High School use, although intended to be available for elementary college classes.

Text-book of Zoology. By T. J. Parker and W. A. Haswell. (With illustrations) Macmillan's, Toronto 2 vols. $9.00

A very valuable book of reference for the teacher.

Zoology. By B. P. Colton. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston. Part I, Descriptive, $1.20; Part II, Practical, .80. In one volume, $1.60

In Part I each group is introduced by the consideration of a type dealing with its life as well as with its structure. Then come selected representatives of the chief groups in each of the larger divisions of the animal kingdom. The practical part contains directions for field study, home and laboratory study, and for the dissection of a series of typical animals.

Part I should be kept from the pupil until his practical work has been done. If a text-book is to be used, Part II is probably the best now available for Upper School work.

BIOLOGY

A Course of Elementary Instruction in Practical Biology. By T. H. Huxley and H. N. Martin. (Revised edition, extended and edited by G. B. Howes and D. H. Scott) Macmillan's, Toronto $3.75

The first edition of this work marked the beginning of modern science teaching.

Elementary Biology. By T. J. Parker. Macmillan's, Toronto $3.95

A study of the morphology and physiology of certain types of both plants and animals. Style, clear; illustrations, good. Suitable for senior students.

Elementary Biology: Plant, Animal, Human. By Peabody and Hunt. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

The book contains ten chapters on Plant Biology, seven chapters on Animal Biology, and nine chapters on Human Biology, Physiology, and Hygiene.

The Elementary Principles of General Biology. By J. F. Abbott. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.60

This book contains some of the fundamental generalizations that are the product of modern research in Biology.

First Course in Biology. By Bailey and Coleman. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

The book is divided into three parts: I. Plant Biology; II. Animal Biology; III. Human Biology. The first two Parts will prove very helpful to the teacher of Lower School Botany and Zoology.

General Biology. By J. G. Needham. The Comstock Publishing Co., Ithaca, New York $2.00

500 pages, illustrated.
A concise presentation of the phenomena of living things, their structure, functions, modes of reproduction, inheritance, etc.

The Microscope: An Introduction to Microscopic Methods and to Histology. By S. H. Gage. The Comstock Publishing Co., Ithaca, New York $3.00

Twelfth edition, 1917, entirely re-written and enlarged.

CHEMISTRY

Chemical Theory for Beginners. By Dobbin and Walker. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

A good elementary account of the principles of Chemistry.

Chemistry and Chemical Magic. By V. E. Johnston, M.A. Oxford University Press, Toronto .60

To provide boys with material for intelligent amusement, in the course of which they will bring into play qualities that will serve them well in matters of greater importance. With over 150 experiments and numerous illustrations.

Chemistry and Laboratory Manual. By Morgan and Lyman. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.40

The authors have tried to bring out the humanistic side of the science, to use as far as possible that material which is laden with intense human interest because of its significance to the race.

Chemistry for Beginners. By Tudor Jenks. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 3s. 6d.

This is not a text-book; it is planned to give the young reader such a general account of the modern science of chemistry as will show him the place the science holds in modern life and how it is related to the sciences. This is one of Chambers's "Wonder Books".

The Chemistry of Commerce By Robert Kennedy Duncan. Harper & Brothers, New York $2.00

This is a brilliant study of modern processes in chemistry, by a Canadian who, before his lamented death, had made a great name for himself in both science and literature.

Chemistry of Common Life. By Johnston & Church. (Illustrated) D. Appleton & Co., New York $2.25

A non-technical treatment of the subject. Familiar and attractive in style.

Descriptive Chemistry. By L. C. Newell. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston $1.28

Contains an illustrated account of the application of chemistry to well-known industries, with a chapter on electro-chemistry. Part II contains experiments. A Handbook for Teachers (25c.) contains answers to the problems, references to the literature of the subject, and suggestions to teachers.

Elementary Chemical Arithmetic. By S. Lupton. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.50

With 1,100 problems.

Elementary Chemistry. By Pattison, Muir, and Slater. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $1.95

One of the best text-books published. The chapter on classification is excellent.

The Elements of Inorganic Chemistry. (New edition, revised and enlarged) Edward Arnold, London, England 5s.

Suitable for systematic instruction extending over several years, beginning with experimental work for quite young students and developing into a more advanced text-book in the later stages.

Elements of Inorganic Chemistry. By H. C. Jones. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Treats the physical properties with especial fulness.

Experimental Chemistry. For Schools and Colleges. By L. C. Newell. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston $1.32

Contains 200 experiments and about 800 problems. Includes about twenty quantitative experiments. A teacher's supplement accompanies it.

Experimental Proofs of Chemical Theory for Beginners. By Sir W. Ramsay. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

Contains a few suggestive quantitative experiments illustrating a concise discussion of chemical theory.

A First Course in Chemistry. By W. McPherson and W. E. Henderson. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.25

Illustrated. This new book embodies the latest discoveries of laboratory research and the most up-to-date pedagogical methods. It is especially prepared to supply a brief course for beginning students in chemistry, the majority of whom will go no further in the subject.

An Inductive Chemistry. By R. H. Bradbury, Ph.D. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.40

An elementary text designed for beginners in the study of chemistry.

5 C.B.

Inorganic Chemistry. By F. S. Kipping, Ph.D., and W. H. Perkin, Ph.D. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 7s 6d.

The subject-matter of Part I is essentially the same as that of the chemistry syllabus of the London University for the external matriculation examination and that of the Board of Education for Stage I.

Part II contains the subject-matter which, in the opinion of the authors, is suitable for those who, having mastered Part I, intend to devote at least two years more to the study of inorganic chemistry, while at the same time working at organic chemistry and other subjects, with the view of obtaining a university pass degree. It has been the aim of the authors throughout to present the fundamental principles and theories of the science, rather than a mere collection of facts, and thus to afford a sound basis from which the student may proceed to specialise in one or other of the branches of chemistry.

Inorganic Chemistry. Advanced Course. By Ira Remsen. American Science Series. (Revised) Holt & Co., New York $3.00

Material arranged according to the periodic scheme. An appendix contains directions for experimental work. For advanced work or general reference.

Introduction to Physical Chemistry. By J. Walker. Macmillan's, Toronto $4.25

Introduction to the Study of Chemistry. By Ira Remsen. (Revised) Holt & Co., New York $1.36

An excellent text-book. Quantitative experiments are emphasized and the modern theory of solution is presented in an elementary form.

Modern Chemistry. By Sir W. Ramsay. Temple Encyclopædic Primers. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto. 2 vols., each .40

Outlines of Industrial Chemistry. By F. H. Thorpe. Macmillan's, Toronto $3.75

Contains accounts of the fundamental principles and operations of the important technical industries.

Practical Chemistry. By C. G. Cook. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.40

Illustrated. Though prepared primarily for High Schools, this text is suitable for colleges giving elementary courses.

Questions on Chemistry. A Series of Problems and Exercises. By F. Jones. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

About 1,500 unanswered problems and exercises.

Scientific Foundations of Analytic Chemistry. By W. Ostwald. Translated by Dr. McGowan. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.50

An application of the more recent theories of chemical action to the problems of analytical chemistry.

Some Chemical Problems of To-day. By Robert Kennedy Duncan. Harper & Brothers, New York $2.00

An account of chemistry in the wide fields of everyday problems.

A Text-Book of Elementary Chemistry. By Alexander Smith. The Century Co., New York $1.35

The relations of chemistry to the affairs of everyday life are stressed in this book.

PHYSICS

Conduction of Electricity Through Gases. By J. J. Thomson. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $5.50

Contains the subject-matter of lectures given at the Cavendish laboratory, on the electrical properties of gases. An exhaustive treatise on the subject.

Electricity and Matter. By J. J. Thomson. Constable & Co., Ltd., London and Edinburgh 5s.

A course of lectures given at Yale University. Discusses the bearing of recent advances made in Electrical Science on our views of the constitution of matter and the nature of electricity.

Elementary Practical Physics. A Laboratory Manual for Beginners. By William Watson. Longmans, Green & Co., New York .90

The Elements of Physics. By E. L. Nichols and W. S. Franklin. Macmillan's, Toronto 3 vols., each $1.90

A college text-book in three volumes, the first of which treats of Mechanics and Heat; the second, of Electricity and Magnetism; and the third, of Light and Sound.

Examples in Physics. By D. E. Jones. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

Contains over 1,000 problems.

Experimental Physics. By H. A. Wilson. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $4.00

A First Course in Physics. By R. A. Millikan, Ph.D., and H. G. Gale, Ph.D. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.25

This is one of the best books on elementary physics now obtainable.

Gases of the Atmosphere. By Sir W. Ramsay. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.50

A history of the discovery of the better known constituents of the atmosphere, including also helium, argon, neon, krypton, and xenon.

Laboratory Manual of Physics and Applied Electricity. Arranged and edited by E. L. Nichols, with illustrations. Macmillan's, Toronto

Vol. I—Junior Course in General Physics. E. Merritt and F. J. Rogers. $3.00

Vol. II—Senior Course and Outline of Advanced Work. By G. S. Moler, F. Bedell, H. J. Hotchkiss, C. P. Matthews, and the Editor. $3.25

Lessons in Elementary Practical Physics. By Stewart and Gee. Macmillan's, Toronto

Vol. I—General Physical Processes, $2.10

Vol. II—Electricity and Magnetism. $3.00

Vol. III—Practical Acoustics. $1.50

Manual of Experiments in Physics. Laboratory Instruction for College Classes. By J. Ames and W. J. A. Bliss. (With figures and diagrams) American Book Company, New York $1.80

A hundred quantitative experiments. The work contains the general theory of the physical laws involved in each experiment, a full description of the manipulation, a discussion of the difficulties to be met, and a number of questions and suggestions as to the bearing and importance of the experiment.

Manual of Experimental Physics. By C. H. Smith, W. E. Tower, and C. M. Turton. Ginn & Co., Boston .80

The New Knowledge. By Robert Kennedy Duncan. A. S. Barnes & Co., New York $2.00

A popular account, by a Canadian, of the new Physics and Chemistry in their relation to the new theory of matter. Not beyond the capacity of an Upper School pupil. One of the best books of the kind published.

Physics. By F. R. Gorton, Ph.D. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.30

An elementary text designed for High Schools and Colleges giving courses for beginners.

Physical Laboratory Manual. By H. N. Chute. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston $1.00

Practical Physics. By Black and Davis. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.25

The Physics of the Secondary School is well treated here. A most commendable feature of this book is the application of the physical principles to the machinery of daily life.

Practical Physics. By H. N. Chute, author of Physical Laboratory Manual. (Illustrated) D. C. Heath & Co., Boston $1.40

Consists of a series of carefully selected qualitative and quantitative exercises, in which full directions are given regarding the preparation of the apparatus, and the manner of conducting the experiments, together with numerous suggestions about note-taking, making inferences from data, management of classes, and equipment of rooms. The Physical Laboratory Manual, by the same author, is also valuable.

Practical Physics. By R. T. Glazebrook and W. N. Shaw. Longmans, Green & Co., New York $2.50

One of the text-books of the Science Series. An excellent work of reference. Covers the whole subject.

Practical Physics for Schools. By R. T. Glazebrook and W. N. Shaw. Longmans, Green & Co., New York

Part I—Electricity and Magnetism .90

Contains minute directions for the conduct of a number of important experiments to illustrate the laws of magnetism and electricity. Apparatus used is simple and may be home-made.

Properties of Matter. By P. G. Tait. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.20

A good reference work for the teacher.

Radio-activity. By E. Rutherford. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $5.00

Contains a complete account of our present knowledge of the subject of Radio-activity. Technical in character.

Text-book of General Physics. For the use of Colleges and Scientific Schools. By C. S. Hastings and F. E. Beach. (Illustrated) Ginn & Co., Boston $2.75

An introduction to the study of physics, adapted to the use of students who command a working knowledge of algebra and the fundamental definitions of trigonometry. Special attention is paid to mechanics.

DYNAMICS

Elements of Hydrostatics. By S. L. Loney. (Pitt Press Mathematical Series) Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $1.75

Mechanics and Hydrostatics. An Elementary Text-book, Theoretical and Practical, for Colleges and Schools. By R. T. Glazebrook, M.A. $2.50

Also in separate volumes:

Part I—Dynamics. $1.25

Part II—Statics. $1.00

Part III—Hydrostatics. $1.00
Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto

Mechanics for Beginners. By I. Todhunter. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.65

Good in Statics and Dynamics for teachers and students.

HEAT

Heat and Light. An Elementary Text-book, Theoretical and Practical, for Colleges and Schools. By R. T. Glazebrook, M.A. $1.75

And separately: Heat, $1.10; Light, .90.
Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto

Heat as a Mode of Motion. By Tyndall. D. Appleton & Co., New York $2.75

LIGHT

Light. By Ed. Edser. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.10

Aims at giving an accurate and comprehensive knowledge of geometrical and physical optics. The mathematical treatment is simple, and the results of recent investigations are described in connection with important laws which they elucidate. Suitable for a College course on Light or for a High School teacher's own use.

Light. By R. T. Glazebrook, M.A. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $1.25

Optical Projection. By L. Wright. Longmans, Green & Co., New York $2.25

Deals with the management of the lantern and the arrangement of apparatus to be used with the lantern.

Practical Exercises in Light. By R. S. Clay. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

A series of simple but highly instructive experiments on light. A most useful little volume to teachers of junior students.

The Wonder Book of Light. By E. J. Houston, Ph.D. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 3s. 6d.

115 illustrations. This is a popular study of the elementary principles of the science of optics. It is one of the most fascinating of Chambers's "Wonder Books".

SOUND

Sound. By Tyndall. D. Appleton & Co., New York $2.25

ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM

Electricity and Magnetism. By R. T. Glazebrook, M.A. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $2.50

A simple treatment of the elementary laws on which the science of electricity and magnetism is based. The book is well illustrated with experiments which may be made with apparatus of an inexpensive character.

Electricity for Young People. By Tudor Jenks. (Illustrated) W. & R. Chambers, London & Edinburgh 2s. 6d.

This is one of the Chambers's "Wonder Books", and not the least fascinating.

An Elementary Electricity and Magnetism. By D. C. and J. P. Jackson. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.40

This book is called a Manual for Artisans, Apprentices, and Home Readers. The book is so popular that it has been re-printed sixteen times since it was first issued in 1902. (Copiously illustrated)

Elementary Lessons in Electricity and Magnetism. By S. P. Thompson. (New edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

Magnetism and Electricity. By S. P. Thompson. (New edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $1.50

Suitable for advanced pupils.

Magnetism and Electricity for Beginners. By H. E. Hadley. Macmillan's, Toronto .75

Elementary and largely experimental. Contains many examples of the use of lines of force in explaining magnetic and electric phenomena.

Modern Views of Electricity. By O. J. Lodge. (Revised and enlarged edition) Macmillan's, Toronto $2.00

A discussion of the theory of magnetism and electricity.

The Wonder Book of Magnetism. By E. J. Houston, Ph.D. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 2s. 6d.

This book is an attempt to present to young people this difficult subject in a simple and entertaining way.

The Young Electrician. By Hammond Hall. Methuen & Co., London, England (1910) $1.25

This book pretends to no higher aim than that of affording instructive amusement to intelligent boys.

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY AND GEOLOGY

Earth Sculpture: or the Origin of Land Forms. Science Series. (Illustrated) G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York $2.00

Really a Physical Geography. Deals in a popular way with forces changing the earth's surface.

Elementary Physical Geography. By R. S. Tarr. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.40

Field, Laboratory, and Library Manual in Physical Geography. By C. T. Wright. (Illustrated) Ginn & Co., Boston .75
Edition with note-book containing 164 pages of ruled sheets and plates $1.00

A student's guide, with full and explicit instructions for reading and for work in laboratory and field.

How the World is Clothed. By F. O. Carpenter. American Book Company, New York .60

How the World is Fed. By F. O. Carpenter. American Book Company, New York .60

International Geography. By H. R. Mill. Macmillan's, Toronto $5.00

Physical Geography. By Wm. M. Davis. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.25

Interest and practical value are secured to a notable degree by showing the relationship of geographical facts to the life of man.

Physical Geography. By Philip Lake. Cambridge University Press. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $2.50

This book provides for the needs of teachers and older students. It is one of the latest books on the subject, 1914.

Physical Geography for Schools. By B. Smith, M.A. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

Containing 222 illustrations, maps, and diagrams.

Physiography: An Introduction to the Study of Nature. By T. H. Huxley, F.R.S. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.60

Illustrated. Deals with English localities mainly. Method admirable.

The Realm of Nature. An Outline of Physiography. By H. R. Mill. Scribner's Sons, New York (1916) $1.50

The main part of the book is occupied by an outline of the more important facts regarding the structure of the Universe, the form, material, and processes of the Earth, and the relations which they bear to life in its various processes.

Story of Our Continent. By N. S. Shaler.
(Illustrated) Ginn & Co., Boston .75

Suitable for the lower forms of a High School. A good book of the Reader type; nearly half is taken up with an account of natural resources and commerce.

Volcanoes and Earthquakes. By E. J. Houston, Ph.D. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh 3s. 6d.

When the High School student of Physical Geography approaches the study of volcanoes and earthquakes, he will find in this "Wonder Book" much that will interest him.

GEOLOGY

The Changeful Earth. By Grenville A. J. Cole, F.R.G.S. Macmillan's, Toronto .40

This is a most interesting and attractive Geology. It is not a text-book; inspiration rather than information is the key-note of the little volume.

The Earth's Beginning. By Sir R. S. Ball, LL.D., F.R.S. Cassell & Co., Toronto $2.25

New edition, with introduction by the author. Four colour plates and other illustrations.

Elementary Geology. By R. S. Tarr. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.40

Geology. By H. F. Cleland. American Book Company, New York $3.50

Glaciers of North America. By T. C. Russell (Illustrated) Ginn & Co., Boston $1.75

Presents the results of the author's own explorations, and is a condensed and accurate statement of the present status of glacial investigations. The book is a companion to the Lakes of North America by the same author, and is intended as a text-book or reference book for students of geology and geography.

An Introduction to Geology. By Wm. B. Scott, Ph.D. Macmillan's, Toronto $2.60

816 pages, 311 illustrations. This book is intended to serve as an introduction to the science of geology. The style is most attractive, and the volume is profusely illustrated. Every High School library should possess this excellent work.

Minerals and Rocks. By W. S. Bayley, Ph.D. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.50

With many illustrations. This volume contains a brief description of the most important minerals and rocks. Only so much of the description of each mineral is given as is essential to its recognition.

Outlines of the Earth's History. By N. S. Shaler. D. Appleton & Co., New York $2.00

In this handbook of Physiography, the author gives a simple and interesting account of the growth and development of the physical features of the earth. (Illustrated)

Rocks, Rock-Weathering, and Soils. By G. P. Merrill. Macmillan's, Toronto $4.00

Text-book of Geology. By Sir A. Geikie. (Illustrated) Macmillan's, Toronto 2 vols. $2.00

A very valuable work. Contains abundance of facts from all quarters, and is not too technical.

Text-book of Geology. (Revised Edition) By J. D. Dana. Ed. by W. R. Rice. American Book Company, New York $1.40

In the revised edition the most important changes relate mainly to zoological and botanical classifications, to the bearings of geology and palaeontology upon the theory of evolution, and to metamorphism.

Text-book of Geology for Elementary Schools. By A. P. Brigham. (Twentieth Century Series) D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.40

Beautifully illustrated, readable, and thoroughly modern in contents and treatment.

ASTRONOMY

Astronomy for Everybody. A Popular Exposition of the Science of the Skies. By S. Newcomb. Doubleday, Page & Co., New York $2.00

Beautifully illustrated and popular in character.

Astronomy with the Naked Eye. By Garrett P. Serviss. Harper & Brothers, New York $1.40

A new "Geography of the Heavens", with 14 charts of the constellations and planets. A chapter is devoted to the stars of each month, the southern constellations, the Milky Way, the Zodiacal light, the moon, planets, etc.

The Book of Stars for Young People. By G. E. Mitton. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00

The book is written in a simple and pleasant style; and although it is quite elementary, it will introduce the average High School pupil to much of which he is probably ignorant.

Friendly Stars, The. By M. E. Martin.
Harper & Brothers, New York $1.25

Popular, entertaining descriptions of the twenty brightest stars and principal constellations. Indicates location, colour, distance, movements, rising and setting. Makes identification with the naked eye easy, and inspires a sense of companionship with the constant stars.

How to Identify the Stars. By W. I. Millham, Ph.D. Macmillan's, Toronto .75

This is a beginner's book in popular astronomy. The twenty constellation tracings and the four charts of the seasons will give a good start to young searchers of the skies.

Pith of Astronomy. By S. G. Bayne.
Harper & Brothers, New York (Illustrated) $1.00

This book is designed with a view to its use by those who know little or nothing of astronomy. It contains the latest facts and figures as developed by the great telescopes, without mathematics, signs, or Greek letters.

Round the Year with the Stars. By Garrett P. Serviss. Harper & Brothers, New York $1.00

A book which draws the reader into more intimate personal relation with the stars themselves, by telling the student how he may find and identify them without the aid of expensive optical instruments. The charts include four circular ones representing the aspect of the heavens, respectively, at the Vernal Equinox, the Summer Solstice, the Autumnal Equinox, and the Winter Solstice. (Illustrated with charts)

Star-Land. By Sir R. S. Ball. Cassell & Co., Toronto $2.25

New and revised edition, with 95 illustrations. The book consists of talks with young people about the wonders of the heavens.

Star-Land. Talks with Young People About the Wonders of the Heavens. By Sir R. S. Ball. (Illustrated) Ginn & Co., Boston $1.00

Star Atlas. By Winslow Upton. Ginn & Co., Boston $2.00

This Atlas contains 6 double-page star maps in two colours. The stars are prominently defined and the constellation figures are in dim outline.

Text-book of Astronomy. By G. B. Comstock. (Twentieth Century Series) D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.40

Beautifully illustrated, up-to-date in contents and treatment, and very readable.

Ways of the Planets, The. By M. E. Martin. Harper & Brothers, New York $1.25

An accurate but untechnical account of the planets and their movements, with easy and sure directions for identifying them and following them in all their comings and goings through the year.

NATURE STUDY

Beasts of the Field. By Wm. J. Long.
Ginn & Co., Boston $1.75

This is an old favourite in a revised form, superbly illustrated.

Bird Life. A Guide to the Study of our Common Birds. By F. M. Chapman.
(With 75 full-page coloured plates, after drawings by Ernest Thompson-Seton)
Wm. Briggs, Toronto $2.25

The early chapters define the bird, its place in nature, its relation to man, describing the colours, migrations, voices, and habits of different varieties. The concluding chapters present the pictures, names, and habitat of more than one hundred birds of Eastern North America.

Bird Guide: Water Birds, Game Birds, and Birds of Prey. (East of the Rockies)
By Chester Reid. Musson Book Co., Toronto $1.00

Bird Guide: Land Birds. (East of the Rockies) (Revised edition) By Chester Reid. Musson Book Co., Toronto .75

Birds of Canada and the United States. By T. Nuttall. Musson Book Co., Toronto $3.00

New edition, revised and annotated by Montague Chamberlain, with 110 illustrations in colour.

Birds of Ontario in Relation to Agriculture. By C. W. Nash, Toronto. (Illustrated)
Published by the Department of Agriculture, Ontario.

Canadian Birds Worth Knowing. Selected from the writings of Neltje Blanchan.
Musson Book Co., Toronto $1.60

Canadian Butterflies Worth Knowing. By Clarence M. Weed. Musson Book Co., Toronto $1.60

With 48 plates, 32 in colour.

The Children's Book of Birds. By Olive Thorne Miller. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $2.00

With 10 coloured plates and many illustrations. The book is intended to interest young people in the ways and habits of birds and to stimulate them to further study.

Everyday Birds. Elementary Studies. By B. Torrey. (Illustrated) Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $1.10

- Everyday Butterflies. By S. H. Scudder. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $2.25
- Familiar Trees and Their Leaves. By F. S. Matthews. D. Appleton & Co., New York $2.00
- First Book of Forestry. By F. Roth. Ginn & Co., Boston .75
An interesting work, beautifully illustrated.
- Flash-Lights on Nature. By Grant Allen. Wm. Briggs, Toronto $1.25
- Fowls of the Air. By Wm. J. Long. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.50
An old favourite by the author of Beasts of the Field. This new edition is charmingly illustrated.
- Guide to Nature Study. For the Use of Teachers. By M. R. Crawford. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto .90
- Guide to the Trees. By Alice Lounsberry. (Illustrated) Wm. Briggs, Toronto $2.25
- Guide to the Wild Flowers. By Alice Lounsberry. (Illustrated) Wm. Briggs, Toronto $2.25
- Handbook of Birds of Eastern North America. By F. M. Chapman. D. Appleton & Co., New York $3.75
The standard work for identification of birds of the region.
- Handbook of Nature Study. By A. B. Comstock. McClelland, Goodchild & Stewart, Toronto (Illustrated) $3.50
Wm. Briggs, Toronto (Illustrated) $3.50
- Hoof and Claw. By C. G. D. Roberts. Macmillan's, Toronto (Illustrated) $1.50
This is one of the author's inimitable books on wild life, written with his usual force and charm.
- The House in the Water. By C. G. D. Roberts. The Page Co., Boston $1.50
With 80 full-page illustrations by Charles Livingston Bull and Frank Vining Smith. This is a fascinating story of the activities of the beaver.
- How to Attract the Birds, and Other Talks about Bird Neighbours. By Neltje Blanchan. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $1.25
- How to Know the Ferns. By Mrs. Dana. Scribner's Sons, New York $1.50
- How to Know the Wild Flowers. By Mrs. Dana. (Illustrated) Scribner's Sons, New York $2.00
The flowers are arranged according to colour. Does not require technical knowledge. The romantic, legendary, literary, and other associations are dealt with.
- How to Teach the Nature Study Course. By J. Dearness. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto .60
Intended for Public Schools, but it contains much material suitable for the High School Teacher of Elementary Science.
- An Introduction to Nature Study. By E. Stenhouse. Macmillan's, Toronto $1.00
No previous knowledge of Biology on the part of the teacher is assumed, and technical terms have, as far as possible, been dispensed with.
- The Kindred of the Wild. By C. G. D. Roberts. The Page Co., Boston $2.00
A book of animal life, with 51 full-page plates and many decorations from drawings by Charles Livingston Bull. In many ways the most brilliant collection of animal stories that has appeared.
- The Lore of the Wanderer. An Open-air Anthology, selected by George Goodchild. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto .50
Selections from fifteen authors. All the sketches deal with open-air topics. To a Canadian, Alan Sullivan, is given the honour of closing the series in his "Cycle of the North".
- Modern Nature Study. By S. Silcox, D.Pæd., and O. J. Stevenson, D.Pæd. Macmillan's, Toronto .75
This is a very useful guide to Nature Study in Canada.
- The Natural History of Selborne. By Gilbert White. Cassell & Co., Toronto .30
- Nature Study. By F. L. Holtz, Head of the Department of Nature Study, Brooklyn Training School for Teachers. Scribner's Sons, New York $1.50
Illustrated, with frontispiece in colour and 172 illustrations. A text-book in methods of nature study, for normal and training schools, and an aid and guide to the practical teacher.
- Nature Study and Life. By C. F. Hodge. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.50
A broad, sane treatment of the whole subject, devoted to principles rather than method.

The New Nature Library. Nature Books, with many coloured plates and photographs from life. 10 vols. Wm. Briggs, Toronto

This series deals with its subjects in a popular way and is highly recommended for reference and for supplementary reading in Biology.

American Animals. By W. Stone and Wm. E. Cram. $4.00

American Food and Game Fishes. By D. S. Jordan and B. W. Everman. $4.00

Nature's Garden. By Neltje Blanchan. $4.00

Bird Neighbours. By Neltje Blanchan. With Introduction by John Burroughs. $2.50

Birds That Hunt and are Hunted. By Neltje Blanchan. Introduction by G. O. Shields. $2.50

Bird Homes. By A. R. Dugmore. $2.50

The Butterfly Book. By W. J. Holland $4.00

The Moth Book. By W. J. Holland $4.00

The Insect Book. By L. O. Howard. $4.00

The Mushroom Book. By N. L. Marshall $5.00

The Open Air. By Richard Jefferies. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto .50

These are some of the nature sketches of the famous British naturalist.

Our Insect Friends and Foes: How to Collect, Preserve, and Study Them. By B. S. Cragin. G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York $1.75

A work for boys and girls; popular in style.

School of the Woods. By Wm. J. Long. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.50

Some life studies of animal instincts and animal training. The illustrations are unusually excellent.

Some Canadian Birds. A Brief Account of Some of the Common Birds of Eastern Canada. By M. Chamberlain. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto .30

Story of Plants. By Grant Allen. D. Appleton & Co., New York .60

Sylvan Ontario. By W. H. Muldrew. Wm. Briggs, Toronto .75

The Watchers of the Trail. By C. G. D. Roberts. The Page Co., Boston $2.00

A companion volume to The Kindred of the Wild, with 48 full-page plates and many decorations from drawings by Charles Livingston Bull. These stories are exquisite in their refinement, and yet robust in their appreciation of some of the rougher phases of woodcraft.

Ways of the Wood Folk. By Wm. J. Long. Ginn & Co., Boston .50

Wild Animals I Have Known. By Ernest Thompson-Seton. Scribner's Sons, New York $2.00

Wild Animal Ways. By Ernest Thompson-Seton. Wm. Briggs, Toronto $1.50

With 200 drawings by the author. Doings of some new four-footed friends.

The Whole Year Round. By D. L. Sharp. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $2.00

This is a most attractive and interesting volume on the fields and the woods and the wild animals thereof. The four sections are named after the four seasons.

MISCELLANEOUS

Atmosphere, The. By E. J. Houston, Ph.D. W. & R. Chambers, London and Edinburgh (69 illustrations) 3s. 6d.

This is a popular book on the wonders of the atmosphere. It will supplement the strictly scientific treatment contained in the High School Text-book on Physical Geography.

Boys' Book of Inventions. By R. S. Baker. (Illustrated) Doubleday, Page & Co., New York $1.75

Descriptive Meteorology. By W. L. Moore, LL.D. D. Appleton & Co., New York $3.00

(With 45 charts and 81 illustrations in the text) This book brings the essentials of meteorology up to date in an available form. Written simply, it is yet complete and as exhaustive as modern scientific research can offer.

Elementary Meteorology. By W. M. Davis. Ginn & Co., Boston $2.50

(With maps and charts) Probably the best elementary book on the subject.

An Elementary General Science. By D. R. Hodgdon. Hinds, Hayden & Eldredge, Inc., New York $1.50

(With 440 illustrations) The book contains answers to over 1,000 questions in general science.

Elements of General Science. By Caldwell and Eikenberry. Ginn & Co., Boston $1.00

Essays. By John Burroughs. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York 18 vols. Each $1.15

Some of the titles are: Wake-Robin; Winter Sunshine; Locusts and Wild Honey; Fresh Fields; Indoor Studies; Birds and Poets, with Other Papers; Peppercorn, and Other Sketches; Signs and Seasons; Riverby; Whitman: A Study; The Light of Day; Ways of Nature; Literary Values; Far and Near; Leaf and Tendril; Time and Change; The Summit of the Years; The Breath of Life.

Familiar Fish: Their Habits and Capture. By Eugene McCarthy. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.75

In Nature's Workshop. By Grant Allen. (Illustrated) Wm. Briggs, Toronto $1.25

Introduction to the History of Science. By Walter Libby. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York $1.50

A graphic, non-technical account of the development of science from the dawn of civilisation to the present day, by Prof. Libby of the Carnegie Institute, a former Ontario High School teacher.

The Life of the Grasshopper. By J. Henri Fabre. McClelland, Goodchild & Stewart, Toronto $1.50

The title is somewhat inaccurate, as the volume includes Fabre's Essays on Grasshoppers, Crickets, Locusts, the Cicada, etc.

Popular Books on Science. By Arabella B. Buckley. D. Appleton & Co., New York.

Short History of Natural Science, and the Progress of Discovery from the Time of the Greeks until the Present Day. For the Use of Schools and Young Persons. $2.25

Fairy-Land of Science. (Illustrated) $1.75

Life and Her Children. Glimpses of Animal Life from the Amœba to the Insects. (Illustrated) $1.75

Winners in Life's Race; or, The Great Back-boned Family. (Illustrated) $1.75

Through Magic Glasses. A sequel to the Fairy-Land of Science. $1.75

Practical Forestry. By J. Gifford. D. Appleton & Co., New York $1.30

Intended for agricultural students, woodland owners, and the general reader.

The Rambles of a Canadian Naturalist. By Samuel T. Wood. J. M. Dent & Sons, Toronto $1.50

A hundred brief essays, dealing with observations of plant and animal life in Canada.

Science and War. By Sir William Osler. Oxford University Press, Toronto .75

Story of Great Inventions, The. By E. E. Burns. Harper & Brothers, New York $1.25

This graphic narrative ranges from Archimedes to wireless telegraphy, and includes vivid presentations of the conditions and circumstances of the greatest basic discoveries.

Squirrels and Other Fur-Bearers. By John Burroughs. Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York .60

With fifteen illustrations in colour after Audubon, and a frontispiece from life.

Wonders of Physical Science. By E. E. Fournier. Macmillan's, Toronto .40

The book contains fifteen chapters, beginning with Archimedes and ending with airships and flying machines.

SECTION VII

DICTIONARIES

Cassell's Latin Dictionary. (Latin-English and English-Latin) By Marchant & Charles. Cassell & Co., Toronto $1.50

The popularity of this lexicon is sufficiently attested by the sale of 232,000 copies.

Dictionary for Schools. By C. T. Lewis. Oxford University Press, Toronto $4.00

Harper's Latin Dictionary. Founded on the translation of Freund's Latin-German Lexicon. Ed. by E. A. Andrews, LL.D. (Revised, enlarged, and in great part re-written by C. T. Lewis, Ph.D., and C. Short, LL.D.) American Book Company, New York $6.50

Elementary Latin Dictionary. (New edition) By C. T. Lewis, Ph.D., editor of Harper's Latin Dictionary. With an Appendix of Names of Persons and Places met in the Latin authors commonly studied in the first two years of the college course. American Book Company, New York $2.00

LATIN GRAMMAR

LATIN COMPOSITION

Arnold's Latin Prose. Revised by Bradley. Longmans, Green & Co., New York $1.50

Cæsarian Prose. By F. P. Simpson. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

Elementary Latin Prose Exercises. By Hillard and Botting. Rivington's, London, England 3s.

This book of 192 Exercises in all, is designed as a complete introduction to North and Hillard's Latin Prose Composition, and may be used from the time when Latin is begun. The Vocabulary is kept small, so that there is constant practice in the inflection of the same words, and these are mainly such words as are met with when Cæsar is begun.

Latin Composition for Secondary Schools.

By B. L. D'Ooge. Part I, based on Cæsar, 50 cents. Parts II and III, based on Cicero's Manilian Law, Catiline I-IV, and Archias, 60 cents. One vol. edition $1.00 Ginn & Co., Boston

Latin Prose Composition. By North and Hillard. Rivington's, London, England $1.25

A good drill book. Copious short sentences and classified continuous passages.

Latin Prose Exercises Based upon Cæsar's Gallic War. By C. Bryans. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

Writing of Narrative Latin. By B. W. Mitchell, Ph.D. $1.10. Teachers' Handbook, .24 American Book Company, New York

This book, the material of which is derived mainly from the first book of Cæsar's Gallic War, is based upon a plan quite different from that of the usual Latin prose composition book. It aims to present the subject from the standpoint of English idioms and to apply the principles of Latin syntax to English forms of speech.

Elementary Greek Exercises. An Introduction to North and Hillard's Greek Prose Composition. By Hillard and Botting. Rivington's, London, England 3s.

This elementary book is definitely planned to lead up to North and Hillard's Greek Prose Composition, and is made as simple as possible. The constructions employed are only those which are required in order to introduce sufficient variety into the simple sentence.

Greek Prose. By Fletcher and Nicholson. Copp, Clark Co., Toronto $1.25

Greek Prose Composition. By North and Hillard. Rivington's, London, England 3s. 6d.

Greek Prose Composition. By H. C. Pearson. (With vocabulary) American Book Company, New York .90

This book combines a thorough and systematic study of the essentials of syntax with abundant practice in translating connected idiomatic English. It also affords constant practice in writing Greek at sight. Based on Books I-IV of Xenophon's Anabasis, the lessons contain the fundamental principles of the language, together with simple sentences and connected prose in English, and are designed for use at the beginning of the second year's study.

An Introduction to Greek Prose Composition. By H. Pitman. Macmillan's, Toronto .90

Elementary, but covers fully the ground for Honour Matriculation. Well arranged and well printed. Contains a good introduction and a well graded set of continuous prose exercises at the end.

Belgian Posters.

All inquiries regarding contents and prices of these very interesting posters should be sent to F. C. A. Jeanneret, B.A., University College, Toronto. These posters are published under the auspices of the Belgian Government at Havre. They are reprints, in the original size, colour, and language, of the various proclamations and orders posted up in Belgium by the German authorities or by Adolph Max, the patriotic and heroic Mayor of Brussels. Most of them are in French, or French and Flemish side by side; some in German, or French and German side by side. They are intensely interesting as current history, most important as pièces de conviction, and can be used very profitably for sight translation in French classes. The whole series (31) $13.50 Single posters, each .50

ART

Ancient and Mediaeval Art. A Short History. By M. H. Bulley. (With 40 illustrations and a chart) Methuen & Co., London, England 6s.

This book, which is the first of its kind, contains thirteen lessons on ancient, classic, and mediaeval art; an introduction which discusses the methods and the necessity of teaching the history of art in the schools and homes; and a chart illustrating the great art periods of the world. The first part of each lesson consists of elementary instruction in the form of a story, suitable for children from eight to thirteen years, and the second part, of a summary of the art of the same period for use in preparing lessons for older classes. Although the book is intended primarily for schools, it should be found useful by all who want a short account of the growth and development of art.
